Fall 2017

Volume 30, Issue 3

555 Main Street, Vermilion, Ohio 44089 • www.Chezfrancois.com • A publication for friends and guests of Chez François.

Dear Friend of Chez François,

I was going through some old files in early spring and came upon a letter written by my father to me when we opened Chez François in 1987.

When you open your own business you make the choice to take a step forward with faith. When the going gets tough, and it will get tough, don't allow yourself to be confused by others incapable of achieving results who continue to preach quitting. Accept opportunity as a blessing, know your weaknesses and strengths. Obstacles will be present to test your courage. Your persistence and your capacity to make decisions will allow you to fight for your dreams. Where there is a dream there is hope, where there is hope there is faith. What you have in your heart needs to be bigger than all of your obstacles. Remember that every defeat accepted with wisdom will bring two victories.

Commit yourself to your business and embrace your dream. Imagine how your efforts will be rewarded when you see your family's dreams fulfilled. See the power you have in your hands and understand the real significance of your work. Keep in mind that you're not greater because you are praised, and you are not less when you are criticized. Say what you mean and mean what you say and whatever you are before God's eyes that's what you are.

Bon Appétite,

Matthew Mars/Proprietor

Chef John D'Amico's Signature Dinner

The Prix-Fixe Signature Dinner offers choices within each course which give more options to create a truly magnificent dining experience. Total table participation is suggested. The menu changes bi-monthly and features the most seasonally fresh food items available in the marketplace. The menu can also be paired with wine, to create your own small wine dinner. This is a great way to entertain business associates or a great excuse to get together with friends.

In October, when clam bake season arrives, fresh lobster, clams, mussels and scallops appear on this menu. In November, as the squash season starts to peak, multiple varieties of squash and root vegetables from the Chef's Garden in Milan, Ohio take center stage along with farm-raised gamebirds. As the holiday season arrives, white and black truffles become the focus through the end of the season.

A Selection of Fine Hors d'oeuvres

Every year the Wednesday before Thanksgiving is one of the busiest "Bar" days of the year. Friends, relatives and young college adults travel back to their hometown for a long weekend getaway.

Several years ago we introduced "The Twelve Beers of Christmas" featuring twelve holiday beers from around the world. We searched the marketplace for a dozen unique holiday beers, and we actually found sixteen! This year our goal is more. Chef John D'Amico will feature a selection of fine hors d'oeuvres.

An Extraordinary California Wine Dinner Part 3

Featuring Limited-Release Wines of 2012, 2013 & 2014

Thursday, September 14, 2017 • 6:30 pm

We thought about skipping a year for the Extraordinary California Wine Dinner but Bill Fox from Mansfield, Ohio told us we were crazy for not having it. He said it is the one of the highlights of his year and we did not want to disappoint Mr. Fox. Thursday, September 14, 2017 we will host a dinner featuring the outstanding wines of the 2012, 2013 & 2014 vintages of California.

A six-course dinner featuring fifteen wines from Sonoma, Anderson and The Napa Valley.

Chardonnay is, in many ways, almost too easy to produce—but creating a great Chardonnay, full of vibrant fruit, is not so simple. The most important prerequisite: a cool growing climate. Today, the best Chardonnays come from a variety of cool and mountainous areas around the state. We will feature two outstanding but distinctively different chardonnays.

Pinot Noir provokes some oddly strong reactions—from the frustration of thwarted vineyard managers to the passion of the true Pinot lover. Pinot is hard to grow, but when grown well, on a superb site, it can be more evocative of the terroir it comes from than any other red grape. Our Pinot flight will feature three of the best AVA's for this finicky varietal.

The best and most expensive Cabernet Sauvignon in America, by and large, comes from Napa Valley! Our flights of Cabernet and Red Blends will take us from the valley floor to the Mountain AVA's of Napa Valley, no other region produces Cabs of such consistency and sheer profundity.

Spain is the top exporter of wine in the world. In 2014, Spain exported 2 with the majority of it going to France. Not only is Spain a top exporter, but in 2014 it was the third largest producer of wine, behind France (1) and Italy (2).

A Spanish Wine Dinner

With Javier Baquero of Grapes of Spain

Thursday, September 21, 2017 • 6:30 pm

Join us Thursday September 21, 2017 as we explore the wines of Spain with Javier Baquero, National Sales Director for importer Grapes of Spain. We will present a six-course dinner prepared by Chef John D'amico, featuring ten wines from Spain.

Grapes of Spain imports wines exclusively from Spain and currently represents 50 producers with a portfolio of 90+ wines from all corners of Spain. Part of their importing strategy is representing winemakers who are young and talented and represent the new face of Spanish winemaking. They craft wines that reflect the true personality, quality and character of each vineyard, grape and the people who make it. The wines are modern but not international with a balance between fruit and oak, where oak frames fruit flavors.

Named one of Robert Parker's
"Wine Personalities of the Year"

"Aurelio Cabestrero is a serious importer of high quality Spanish wine who will gain ever increasing recognition as his name becomes better known... there is no question he has a brilliant palate as well as a knack for finding tiny, unheralded estates that are producing high quality wine."

Most of the top AOCs of France are a few hundred acres and maintain limited production numbers in order to keep quality uniformly high. Châteauneuf is approximately 9,000 acres and produces of over 15 million bottles of wine per year.

A Rhône Valley Wine Dinner

With John Junguenet
of Alain Junguenet Selections
Friday, October 6, 2017 • 6:30 pm

Please join us as we explore the Rhône Valley of France with John Junguenet of Alain Junguenet Selections. Alain Junguenet made a name for himself as a Grand Prix racecar driver, before turning his passion for wine and his friendship with many of France's foremost vignerons into a second career that has brought him additional notoriety.

"The name Alain Junguenet on a bottle," wrote Robert Parker in December, 1991, "is an indication of a fine wine that is probably under-valued in terms of its quality," and that continues to remain true today. Alain's son, John works closely with his father to continue the tradition of sourcing high-quality, good value selections from across France. This exceptional collection of small, family-owned and farmed estates brings the consumer direct access to high quality micro-production wines.

Junguenet's initial strengths were in the wines of the south of France, "... particularly [in] Châteauneuf-du-Pape and Languedoc-Roussillon, the quality of Junguenet's portfolio stands out. He was one of the first importers to recognize the vast unexploited potential that existed in these two regions. In terms of importers he is 'Mr. Châteauneuf-du-Pape,' with a portfolio...of serious estates making high quality wines."

Chez François
presents
A Gourmet Clam Bake

Thursday, October 12, & Friday, October 13, 2017

Clam bakes have always been popular events in northern Ohio. In fact, the history of the clam bake in northern Ohio can be traced to just after the Revolutionary War, when New England farmers whose farms and homes were destroyed by war were offered inexpensive land in the Western Reserve and Firelands, which is now the Northcoast of Ohio. Fall clam bakes are one of the traditions the settlers brought with them.

We feel that our clambake is one of the best, because we purchase our food products from the best purveyors in the country. We have featured clam bakes in October for the past twenty years. We purchase farm-raised Littleneck Clams from Maine, Prince Edward Island mussels from Nova Scotia & lobster and scallops caught off the coast of Massachusetts...

A Halloween/Masquerade Party

Friday, October 27, 2017 • 7:00 PM

Halloween is an annual celebration, but just what does it actually celebrate, and how did this peculiar custom originate? Is it, as some claim, a kind of demon worship, or is it just a harmless vestige of some ancient pagan ritual?

The word "Halloween" actually has its origins in the Catholic Church. It comes from a contracted corruption of All Hallows Eve. November 1, "All Hallows Day" (or "All Saints Day"), is a Catholic day of observance in honor of saints. But, in the 5th century BC, in Celtic Ireland, summer officially ended on October 31. This holiday was called Samhain (sow-en), the Celtic New Year.

One story purports that, on this day, the disembodied spirits of all who had died throughout the preceding year would come back in search of living bodies to possess for the next year...it was believed to be their only hope for the afterlife. The Celts believed all laws of space and time were suspended during this time, allowing the spirit world to intermingle with the living.

Naturally, the still-living did not want to be possessed. So on the night of October 31, villagers would extinguish the fires in their homes to make them cold and undesirable. They would then dress up in all manner of ghoulish costumes and noisily parade around the neighborhood, being as destructive as possible in order to frighten spirits looking for bodies to possess.

The custom of trick-or-treating is thought to have originated not with the Irish Celts, but with a 9th century European custom called "souling." On November 2, All Souls Day, early Christians would walk from village to village begging for "soul cakes," made out of square pieces of bread with currants. The more soul cakes the beggars would receive, the more prayers they would promise to say on behalf of the dead relatives of the donors. At the time, it was believed that the dead remained in limbo for a time after death, and that prayer, even by strangers, could expedite a soul's passage to heaven. Although some cults may have adopted Halloween as their favorite "holiday," the day itself did not grow out of evil practices. It grew out of the rituals of Celts celebrating a new year, and out of Medieval prayer rituals of Europeans. And today, even many churches have Halloween parties or pumpkin carving events for the kids. After all, the day itself is only as evil as one cares to make it.

Our twelfth annual Halloween Party will be held on Friday, October 27, 2017.

We have booked Less Than 88 to perform downstairs in the Main Dining room. Find your favorite costume and book this event early. We will seat the first 100 reservations downstairs and the later reservations upstairs in the Parisian Room. You can dance in either venue, so put on your most ghoulish dancing shoes and enjoy a night of laughter and good times.

Whoever said 'money doesn't grow on trees' surely didn't know about truffles. Truffles grow underground, about one to four inches below, on the roots of certain varieties of oak and hazelnut trees.

A Truffle Wine Dinner

With Frederick Wildman

Thursday, November 9, 2017 • 6:30 pm

Frederick Wildman & Sons join us to co-host our annual Truffle Dinner on Thursday, November 9, 2017, this event helps "kick-off" our annual Truffle Season at Chez François. A leading import company in the USA, Frederick Wildman & Sons represents a great collection of Italian, French and Spanish wineries which are a perfect compliment for our truffle dinner. We will match nine wines from their portfolio with Chef John D'Amico's seven-course truffle menu. Stefano Francini, Frederick Wildman Director of Fine Wine will be our co-host for this annual event.

Today Frederick Wildman & Sons portfolio of wines includes over 50 brands from Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Portugal and Spain each unique and prominent in its region of production. Along with the growth, the familiar Wildman Oval - present on every bottle that the company imports - has remained constant and is still consistently recognized worldwide as a symbol of quality.

A 2017 Beaujolais Nouveau Celebration

With
Kysela Pere et Fils Imports

Friday, November 17, 2017 • 6:30 pm

Join us Friday, November 17, 2017 as we co-host our 26th annual Beaujolais Nouveau Celebration with Kysela Pere et Fils of Winchester, Virginia. Beaujolais Nouveau is always released the third Thursday of November, regardless of the start of the harvest. Beaujolais Nouveau owes its easy drinkability to a winemaking process called carbonic maceration, also called whole berry fermentation. This technique preserves the fresh, fruity quality of the wine, without extracting bitter tannins from the grape skins. The Beaujolais "Nouveau" dinner will feature thirteen wines from Fran Kysela's outstanding portfolio.

Robert Parker on Kysela: "Kysela's offerings all tend to be extremely pure, ripe, fruity wines...in short, faithful reflections of their appellations."

"My philosophy on wine is one based on quality. Nothing else matters but the quality of the juice in the bottle. I look for wines that are true to type and classic in their flavors. I prefer wines that are fresh and bright and show good fruit/acid balance. I am not a new oak person, feeling that too much wood obscures true regional character. The wines I select are focused and on target. There is nothing more exciting than tasting a wine that hits the mark."

Truffles 101

For the past eighteen years we have featured truffles on our menu, culminating in our annual Truffle Dinner in late November. This year is no exception as we look forward to the fall truffle season.

Truffles have fascinated people for thousands of years. Their attraction is a tantalizing taste and aroma which, once experienced, is never forgotten. The taste and aroma of commercially-collected truffles is so intense that they are used as a flavoring instead of a separate dish.

The "White Truffle" grows spontaneously in the rich clay soil of the hilly region of the Monferrato in northern Italy. The "Tartufo Bianco" (white truffle) is the most coveted of the underground mushrooms and is often referred to as "The White Diamonds of Piedmont." It is the crème de la crème of the underground tubers, more delicate and prized than the "Black Truffle." Currently, a pound of "Black Truffles" fetches $500 to $850 and "White Truffles" between $2,000 to $2,800 per pound, making truffles one of the most expensive food items in the world. The name "truffle" has been borrowed to describe small, fancy chocolate candies, another expensive and delicious food. Real "Black Truffles" are roundish, brown, and dirty when they come out of the ground. They are the fruit of the truffle organism, like apples are the fruit of an apple tree.

Truffles, which vary from the size of a nut to an egg, are finicky mushrooms that grow only in loose, humid, sun-soaked soil, particularly beneath elm and oak trees. The harvest season for "Black Truffles" runs from November to the beginning of March, and the season for "White Truffles" from October to the end of December.

So, what exactly does one do with truffles? They are meant to be served uncooked, because as their scent is powerful, their flavor is delicate. Mostly they wind up shaved as ambrosial toppings for salad, pasta or risotto. They are also used to infuse oils and butter to compliment the shaved truffle toppings.

A Truffle Dinner

Our fourteenth annual Truffle Dinner season will take place in late fall. Truffles are highly perishable and expensive, so we will order only what we need. Accordingly, we ask that you book your reservation one week in advance. Seating is open with no start time.

Friday, November 3, through Saturday, November 25, 2017
